

FENS Media credentials policy

The Press Centre is only open to members of the working press. Identification will be required, such as a press card issued by a recognised institute of journalists or union, or equivalent proof of employment by a publication or broadcaster. Freelance journalists must bring a letter of intent from their editor and should also bring evidence of previous publications.

Who can apply for a Press Pass?

A free Press Pass will be issued to journalists (including freelance journalists) for recognised:

- Journals, magazines and news publications
- News agencies
- Broadcast media
- Web publications

Representatives engaged in the following are NOT entitled to a free Press Pass, but may register as a delegate on payment of full congress fees:

- Public relations
- Sales and marketing
- Advertising
- Commercial exhibitions

The organisers of FENS Forum 2018 reserve the right to refuse a free Press Pass.

Press Pass - access and facilities

Those with a Press Pass are entitled to attend:

- Press conferences
- Scientific sessions listed in the programme
- Congress exhibition

You will be able to work in the fully equipped Press Centre. FENS Forum press releases and other relevant information will be available. In addition to the speakers at the Press Conferences, specialists will be on-hand to answer your questions on aspects of neuroscience. Corporate materials and product information will not be distributed in the Press Centre.

Embargoes

Journalists are required to observe embargoes as indicated either by the Press Conference or by the date and time of each session.

Press Centre guests

Information officers for academic institutions, scientific societies or registered medical research charities may register as guests. Spouses, partners or other guests of journalists cannot be registered as a Press Centre guest. The organisers of FENS Forum 2020 reserve the right to refuse a Press Centre Guest Pass.
